

Point in View Chapel and Almshouses

A Place of Peace and Promise

We are recruiting for a number of voluntary positions to join our Board of Trustees.

Who are we?

The Mary Parminter Charity was started by Jane and Mary Parminter then living at A La Ronde, Exmouth (now owned by the National Trust). In 1811 they completed a building on part of their estate situated in Summer Lane, Exmouth, Devon consisting of a Chapel, School and four Almshouses, in a 3-acre field overlooking the Exe estuary.

We are a small charity with a board of four trustees (with four vacancies) now responsible for six almshouses and a grade 1 listed chapel set in a 3 acre meadow.

The objects of the charity are to relieve poverty by the provision of housing accommodation with a preference for single women.

Who do we want?

Whether you are an experienced trustee or wanting to take your first step at Board level we want to hear from you.

Our new trustees will have skills or a keen interest in one or more of the following areas:

- Maintenance of Historic buildings
- Environmental education and conservation in our meadow.

As a new trustee you will have:

- Induction, training, and reimbursable expenses.

- Influence to shape innovative projects
- The chance to influence the health and wellbeing of our residents.

The expected commitment is usually four Trustee meetings each year which take place at Point - in - View Chapel, EX8 5BD.
